 - b. Have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit students' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these.
 - c. Demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support students' education at different stages of their development.
 - d. Have a clear understanding of the needs of all students, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; those with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them.
6. Make accurate and productive use of assessment
 - a. Know and understand how to assess the relevant subject and curriculum areas.
 - b. Make use of formative and summative assessment to secure students' progress.
 - c. Use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons.
 - d. Give students regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and encourage students to respond to the feedback.
7. Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment
 - a. Have clear rules and routines for behaviour in classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the school, in accordance with the school's behaviour policy.
 - b. Have high expectations of behaviour, and establish a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions and rewards consistently and fairly.
 - c. Manage classes effectively, using approaches which are appropriate to students' needs in order to involve and motivate them.
 - d. Maintain good relationships with students, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary.
8. Fulfil wider professional responsibilities
 - a. Make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the school.
 - b. Develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support.
 - c. Deploy support staff effectively.
 - d. Take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional development, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues.
 - e. Communicate effectively with parents with regard to students' achievements and well-being.

PART TWO: PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Our teachers are expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes, which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

1. Teachers uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school, by:
 - a. Treating students with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher's professional position.
 - b. Have regard for the need to safeguard students' well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions.
 - c. Show tolerance of and respect for the rights of others.
 - d. Support fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.
 - e. Ensure that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit students' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.
2. Teachers must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.
3. Teachers must have an understanding of, and always act within, the statutory frameworks, which set out their professional duties and responsibilities.

Additionally, teachers at Netherhall School are also expected to act as Tutors.
